

algorithms

A set of step-by-step rules that a computer follows to decide what to do next, such as which video to show, which word should come next, or how a chatbot should reply

authentic

Real, not fake or copied

chatbot

A computer program, app or website that can answer questions or chat with people

generative AI

A type of AI that can make things like writing, pictures or music by copying patterns it has learned